A collection of interior design projects that have utilized lighting - both natural and artificial - as their main theme. Reputed architects and top designers use natural and artificial light to transform a room and make it more beautiful, warm, functional or spacious. Light generates color and contrast, and brings a house to life. Light up your Home showcases homes that have been built or renovated with special attention to light and lighting. Using photography by Eugene and Herman Verne, the book illustrates varying ideas and practical applications surrounding light and interior design. Author Eva De Geyter worked for lifestyle magazine Libelle and is now a freelance journalist.
